

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction
Kevin Siena	7
I. SCIENTIFIC AND MEDICAL RESPONSES
1) Medical Responses to the ‘French Disease’ in Europe at the turn of the Sixteenth Century
Jon Arrizabalaga	33
2) Charlatans, the Regulated Marketplace and the Treatment of Venereal Disease in Italy
David Gentilcore	57
3) Joseph Grünpeck’s Astrological Explanation of the French Disease
Darin Hayton	81
II. LITERARY AND METAPHORIC RESPONSES
4) (Po)X Marks the Spot: How to ‘Read’ ‘Early Modern’ ‘Syphilis’ in The Three Ladies of London
Jonathan Gil Harris	109
5) Luxury and Lechery: Hunting the French Pox in Early Modern England
Roze Hentschell	133
6) Linguistic Dis-ease: Foreign Language as Sexual Disease in Early Modern England
Diane Cady	159
7) French Diseases and Italian Responses: Representations of the mal francese in the Literature of Cinquecento Tuscany
Domenico Zanrè	187

III. INSTITUTIONAL AND POLICING RESPONSES

8)	Quarantining Beauty: The French Disease in Early Modern Venice Laura J. McGough	211
9)	The French Connection: Syphilis and Sodomy in Late-Renaissance Lucca Mary Hewlett	239
10)	The Clean and the Foul: Paupers and the Pox in London Hospitals, c.1550-c.1700 Kevin Siena	261
	Notes on Contributors	285
	Index	287